NYS Senator Cathy Young Endorses Republican Candidate Tom Dougherty for Livingston County Sheriff

Cites ability, experience and management skills.

Geneseo, New York, October 21, 2013—New York State’s Senator Cathy Young announced her endorsement and backing of Thomas Dougherty for Livingston County Sheriff in the 2013 general election.

According to Senator Young, “Tom Dougherty has all the credentials to be a first-rate Sheriff for Livingston County. He has the ability, the experience, and the management skills the job calls for. Please join me in supporting Tom Dougherty for Livingston County Sheriff.”

Tom Dougherty, Republican candidate for Livingston County Sheriff, said in a statement, “Senator Young’s position on important issues—such as limiting state spending, legislating tougher penalties for drug crimes — is exactly the support we need to minimize wasteful spending and reduce crime. I am thrilled to accept Cathy’s endorsement, and I look forward to working with her.”

In addition to Senator Young’s endorsement, the following people and organizations have also rallied behind Tom Dougherty for Sheriff of Livingston County:

- Senator Patrick Gallivan
- Lowell Conrad, Chair of the Livingston County Republican Party
- SUNY Geneseo College Republicans
- Livingston County Deputy Sheriff’s Association
- New York State Troopers PBA
- Dansville Police Officer’s Association
- Livingston County workforce with backing of the CSEA
- Mt. Morris Democratic Committee
- Avon Democratic Committee
